Players (1 of 2)

- Thank your previous coaches for helping you get to where you are now
- The big 3 rules:
 1. Give your best effort
 2. Be enthusiastic
 3. Treat yourself, teammates, coaches, equipment and opponents with respect
- Love the ball!
 - Keep the ball or share it with your teammates
 - Treat the ball like a friend (or like a kitten — make it purr), not like toxic waste

Players (2 of 2)

- Mistakes are OK! Coaches are there to help you understand and learn from them. “Can you fix it?”
- Other rules:
 - Ball: Always bring your soccer ball
 - Hair: If you have long hair, wear something to keep it out of your face
 - Shoelaces: keep them tied (Lock Laces)
 - Jewelry: leave at home (exception of medical bracelets)
 - Uniforms: On game days, wear one and bring the other in case of unexpected color conflict
- Links: practice session guidelines / game day guidelines

Coaches

- Ward Swain, Hailey Johnson, tbd, occasional older guest trainers
- We are teachers, not drill sergeants or dictators
- Goal: create a high energy, educational environment
 - We strive to blend learning with fun
- Focus on individual skill development before team development
- Encourage healthy competition with yourself and others
- Every player belongs
- Keep it fun! (While keeping it focused.)

Parents (1 of 5)

- Arrange to get your daughters to practices and games on time
- Be your daughter's biggest fan, and the other girls' 2nd biggest fan
 - We discourage "pay for play" incentives
- Communication:
 - Stay informed: our Junior Academy Girls web site is our main communication channel, and we update it regularly
 - Keep coaches informed (schedule conflicts, illness or injury)
- When fees are due, please pay them promptly

Parents (2 of 5)

- Schedule conflicts and priorities: Family (1), School (2), Soccer (3)
- Be a fan instead of a coach or critic
- The 5-hour request: I can manage the whole group if each family manages their own responsibilities
- Links:
 - practice session guidelines
 - game day guidelines
 - coaching from the parents' sideline

Parents (3 of 5)

- It's a new soccer environment: we expect questions!
- Potential adjustment period for your daughter:
 - more fish
 - bigger pond
- Mix of ages:
 - 2011 U8s
 - 2012 U7s

Parents (4 of 5)

- Differences between Junior Academy and rec
 - Players tend to be more aggressive (no “force field” defense)
 - Players move as a team (no “stay back” defenders)
 - Everyone has attacking and defending roles
 - We expect players to think as they play. “Keep the ball, that’s our call. Scan, plan, play, that’s our way.” “Kick it” isn’t a good plan.
 - Goalies are soccer players, not statues

Parents (5 of 5)

- Playing style:
 - Soccer (thinking) vs. kickball (random)
 - Ball possession vs. field position
- The ball: is it your friend, or is it toxic waste?

Q & A

- How many teams, how many players per team, how much playing time?
- Regular season games
- Tournament play
- Will my daughter play with Susie?
- Link: frequently asked questions

- Junior Academy Girls

- Web site: www.nasaacademygirls.org. Check once a week during the off-season, twice a week in-season.
- Twitter feed: <https://twitter.com/nasajracadg> or @nasajracadg. Used for late breaking schedule changes, usually weather-related, and brief event previews or recaps. Takes priority over NASA Tophat channels. (You don't need your own Twitter account to view our Twitter feed.)
- Phone hot-line: 1-866-206-9066, ext. 8870. Typically only used for late breaking schedule changes, usually weather-related. Takes priority over NASA Tophat channels.

Communication channels 2 of 2

- Channel priority:

1. Junior Academy Girls Twitter or phone hot-line
2. NASA Tophat phone hot-line or RainedOut system

- Communicating with coaches

- Use e-mail for basic info, such as “Susie has a school performance Tuesday.”
- Meet face to face for anything best suited for a conversation, such as “Susie is worried that she isn’t scoring as many goals as the other girls.”
- Best time for a conversation with a coach is after a practice session, not before or during practice, and not on game days
- Link: communication channel details
